PRINCIPAL'S UPDATE – Mrs. Erin Haughey

- Graduation date is now May 30 (due to makeup days from the hurricane). This does not impact IBCP or IBDP students' testing.
- Caps & gowns are available now through Herff Jones. DO NOT purchase through Amazon; the color WILL be different. Place your order by Spring Break to be certain of delivery and best price.
- 12/9 & 12/10: 9th and 10th graders are doing PM2 testing
- Rebecca Bilbrey was named our school employee of the year! Congratulations and thank you to her for all she does
- There will be no ½ days for exams this year (due to hurricanes)
- The School district/school board has decided to implement ½ credits. Stay tuned for a detailed email explaining the changes.

IB COORDINATOR'S UPDATE/PLANS – Dr. Jim Minor

- RPAC is on schedule to finish by our 11/30 deadline!
- All students looking to attend SCF should be aware SCF Foundation gives away 2.1 million in scholarships every year! Be sure to research the foundation if SCF is where you are going to school
- IB training is actively underway. Alan Hamacher performs 5 year site review for IBO and is meeting w/CTE teachers to bring them up to speed
- Dr. Jane Atkins, IB World English expert is training some IB English teachers
- 18 IB teachers will be attending FLIBS for training
- 12/3 is IB info night.

IBCP Update—Ms. Jessica Bies—no update

PRESIDENT'S REPORT—Kami Yaegers

- Spring ACT/SAT prep course dates: dates will be determined
- ACT Spring test date for all RHS Juniors: 2/25
- Dec.3 is IB Information Night 5-8pm
- Need IB Recognition Chair
- Full Budget Review: moved and seconded to add a line item to the IBPO budget to cover expenses associated with visiting IB experts.
- Potential fundraiser: RHS parent has a printing business and can print senior graduating yard signs for IBPO to sell. Whatever funds are raised will be used towards the school population the funds were raised from.
