2. Part 1: Vocabulary (Due Friday, June 26, 2026)
As you read the story, you will create a vocabulary list with 30 words or phrases that you do not know. Use an online dictionary to find the English translation. Fill out the table with the word/phrase in Spanish and its English translation.
3. Part 2: Comprehension Questions (Due Friday, July 31, 2026)
Re-read your assigned short story and answer each question in at least 2 complete sentences in Spanish. Copy and paste your story's questions into a Word document and type your answers. In order to get full credit for this assignment, you must include textual evidence and specific details from the story to support your answers.
4. Part 3: PowerPoint Presentation (Due Friday, August 14, 2026)
Now that you have read the story and answered the comprehension questions, you will create a PowerPoint presentation in which you will describe important moments, characters, themes, and the message of the story in 5-7 slides.
